HB1052 LOCAL INCOME TAX (THOMPSON J) Specifies that a county fiscal body may adopt an ordinance to fund a correctional or rehabilitation facility with local income tax (LIT) revenue only if a local income tax council is not the adopting body or the local income tax council has failed to dedicate at least 0.2% of the expenditure tax rate to this funding. Requires an additional expenditure rate to be adopted by a county fiscal body for funding a public safety access point or a correctional or rehabilitation facility unless all civil taxing units receiving a distribution approve a reallocation under the existing expenditure rate. Limits the use of LIT revenue to constructing or making improvements to a correctional or rehabilitation facility. Beginning in 2021, redistributes the first 0.25% of the expenditure rate in counties that had adopted the former county option income tax (COIT) to match the allocations in counties that had adopted the former county adjusted gross income tax (CAGIT). Changes the allocation of LIT revenue that is based on property taxes to be based on maximum permissible property tax levies instead of actual levies. Makes technical corrections.
